

Social Work Service

Our team are all professionally trained and qualified social workers here to assist you and your family/whānau to deal with personal, emotional, relationship and social problems that are health or disability related.

Our social workers are experienced in a wide variety of health related issues including:

- Health - when your health needs change and personal or social problems feel overwhelming.
- Emotional Stress - when you are stressed trying to manage sickness or disability, either your own or those of someone close to you.
- Grief and Loss - when sudden loss or significant changes in health occur.
- Relationship Issues - when relationships become stressed due to the emotional and social impact of sickness or disability.
- Complex Problem Solving - when you are sick and need assistance with practical matters.
- Low Mood - when health and personal or social problems are affecting your mood.
- Safety - we are professionally trained to assess each situation and make plans for your safety or the safety of a family member.
- Information Sharing - we have a comprehensive directory of community services and agencies.

Our social work service can request cultural support services or independent interpreting services to assist the process if you would like this.
